

Lamar county.—William Bell, of Honey Grove, Fannin county, was born in Ray county, Tennessee, February 13, 1831; moved to Texas in November, 1839, and located in Nacogdoches; served three years and five months in the Confederate army, in the Trans-Mississippi Department; elected to the present Legislature as a Democrat, by a majority of 975 votes.